

English 31

History-Geography Programme of Study

Terminale

The T° OIB programme has been produced through the partnership of the French Ministry of Education and Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) to allow the International Sections to draw upon the expertise of the teachers working in their section.

History and Geography carry equal weight in the examinations (both written and oral) and students hone the skills required in both subject areas throughout the year.

History Units	Geography Units
Democracy in Danger : The Crisis of Capitalism, the threat of Totalitarianism and the Road to World War Two (1930 – 1945) <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The Wall Street Crash and its impact- Totalitarianism in the 1930s- World War Two and the New European Order 1939-45	Maritime areas and Geopolitics <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Dynamics of the Global Economy- Geostrategic importance of maritime trade routes and EEZs- The emergence of new shipping routes- Geopolitical conflict in Maritime Zones Specific case studies to be integrated into the teaching of content
Hard and Bitter Peace : Bipolarity and Multipolarity 1945 – 1990 <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The End of WWII and the start of the Cold War- The Globalization of the Cold War (China 1949 – 1971)- Nation Building after 1945 (Case Study of Britain)	Unequal Integration and Unequal Development in a Globalised World <ul style="list-style-type: none">- regions are unequally integrated into the global economy- the dynamics of global government- development strategies Specific case studies to be integrated into the teaching of content

Politics, Economics and Ideology from the 1970s to the end of the Cold War

- The Decline of Keynesianism and the Birth of Neo-Liberalism
- From Détente to the Velvet Revolution : the Collapse of the Eastern Bloc and the Tirumph of the Western Idea
- Britain and France in the 1980s

The Position of the European Union in a Globalised World

- regional variations across the EU and development projects
- challenges facing the European Union in a changing world

Specific case studies to be integrated into the teaching of content